

2025 Women On Wheels Rules

Building Rules

Any North American front wheel drive car with engine size no larger than 2.4L is allowed.
Automatic transmission only.
No Turbos or Super Chargers.
All interior must be removed.
All glass must be removed except front windshield.
Dash must stay in and be stock.
All doors must be welded or chained shut.
Gas tank must stay in stock position with two safety chains.
All lights, door handles and chrome must be removed.
All air bags must be removed.
No cutting of any kind to the steel structure of the car to make it lighter.
Car must stay stock height. No cut springs, shocks or suspension parts.
Zero camber left front, left rear and right rear. 5 degrees allowed in right front.
Battery must be in stock location under hood.
Exhaust pipe must exit right or left side of car and the last 12" must be 1.5" OD.
Must run all stock electronic components. No after market electronic components allowed.

Tires

Maximum 215/55/16 All Season or Snow Tires H rated.
No cut tires.
No new tires.
Max allowable tire tread depth 7/32nds
No legend tires allowed.
All right side tires can be no lower than 40psi at start of race
Maximum 6" steel wheels only.
All four tires must be the same size.
All four wheels must be same offset and width.

Cage

OPTION #1

One H Bar must be bolted to the floor and roof.
Must have a drivers door plate 10" x 30" x .25".

OPTION #2

Four point cage with three driver door bars.
No door plate required.

Safety

A scanner is MANDATORY on track officials frequency (450.1000) only.
Must have a drivers window net that latches from the top or bottom within drivers reach.
An aluminum racing seat is recommended.
Must have a minimum of a four point racing seat belt and must be mounted to the cage.
A fire resistant race suit, one or two piece, is recommended.
Long sleeves and pants mandatory.
Must have a full face helmet. Snell approved no older than 2010. No DOT or M style allowed.
Must have a fire extinguisher within drivers reach.

Any questions contact Wayne Smith 902-221-5244 or wayne@pettyraceway.com or message on facebook